

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

TO THE DILIGENT BIBLIOSCOPER.

F with your pleasing occupation of looking for books, you possess the love of reading them, you may somewhere have met with the quaint old comparison, that, as geography and chronology are the eye and the ear, so Bibliography is both the hands of History; and, as these two poor hands are the slaves of the eye and the ear, so Bibliography without distinction or reward, ministers to the wants of History. He who catalogues beetles or star-fish, in a language that never lived, is by common consent a savant, and may walk, with his brows above his temples, unrebuked in the paths of science, while he who diligently ransacks the remotest nooks, clears away literary rubbish, sorts, calendars, and elaborately describes the dry and isolated materials of history; arranges, indexes, describes, and catalogues books and manuscripts, must content himself with the unappreciated airs of the bibliographer, mindful of the fate of the bad speller, whose blunders are open to censure, while his merits are without praise. The highest incentive, then, that actuates the maker of catalogues is the fear of disgrace for a bad one, while he knows that a good one will bring him no applause.

The day may come, however, when the varied knowledge, the patience, the perseverance, and the industry of the true bibliographer will take their true rank, and he be rewarded according to his aim and his labours. Nay, it must be so, or we shall soon be papered up and smothered in print. Were the sheets of The Times spread out like maps and piled one upon another, we might behold every Saturday a pyramid of world-wide intelligence overtopping the London Monument. Just face this then my indifferent reader, and imagine for a moment what comes and has come from all the teaming and steaming presses of the world during this and the last two centuries! Knowledge is booked, and therefore bibliography has become a necessity. Catalogues are multiplying, and a demand for better ones is increasing. Even now a catalogue of catalogues is required, so that the writer upon any given topic may readily ascertain what has been written upon it, and thus avoid going over ground already sufficiently explored. Many a good historian, less tough than a Gibbon or a Robertson, in amassing his materials has broken down before he has taken up his pen, so that one may now fairly consider his work half written when he knows what and where are his materials.

THE BIBLIOGRAPHY OF AMERICA is the subject I had the youthful presumption, twenty years ago, to choose. There is not, perhaps, in the whole range of modern history, a more gigantic theme for the future historian than the story of the discovery, conquest, planting, and development of the New World. From the embarkation of Columbus at Palos in 1492, to the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia in 1862, is a period worthy the genius of a master-mind, nay, of many master-minds, for so numerous, scattered, and crude are the materials, that it will require the energies of many collaborators to work up the innumerable minor topics before the master historian can with advantage digest and combine them into one harmonious whole.

The impulse which the valuable and well-known BIBLIOTHECAS of Mr. Warden, M. Ternaux-Compans (not to mention the previous excellent works of Leon Pinelo, Barcia, Eguira, White Kennet, Alcedo, Homar, Berestein de Souza and others) and more especially of my late and lamented friend Mr. O. Rich, gave to the collection of books relating to America, shows how highly such works are appreciated. More recently, however, the indefatigable researches of many collectors, both public and private, in Europe as well as in America, combined with the unprecedented high prices of books and manuscripts of this class, have been the means of bringing to light so many works hitherto uncatalogued and undescribed, that a larger, a more comprehensive, and a more accurate Bibliotheca is now much needed. Following therefore my own inclination, but at first little dreaming of the amount of labour undertaken, I many years since volunteered to devote my humble energies to the bibliography of the American Continent. In other words, my aim was and still is, according to the best of my powers to afford (as far as one poor painstaking life can do it) to the future historians of my country and continent, a 'BIBLIOGRAPHIA AMERICANA ; or, a Bibliographical Account of the Sources of American History from the earliest period to the present time.'

PLAN OF THE WORK.

1. A BRIEF biography will, whenever practicable, precede the list of each author's works.
2. The work will contain a descriptive list of all historical books relating to America (North and South, and the West India Islands) and of all such books printed therein, from the earliest period to the present time, which may be found in the principal public and private libraries of Europe and America, or which are described in other works; together with notices of many of the more important unpublished manuscripts.

3. The descriptions will be made, as far as possible, from an examination of the books themselves. If any be taken from other sources of information they will be distinguished by some peculiar mark.

4. The titles including the imprint or colophon will, in all cases, be given in full, word for word, and letter for letter, together with a translation into English of all titles in other languages.

5. The collation of each book will be given; that is, such a description as will indicate a perfect copy.

6. The market value of the books, with the prices at which they have been sold at public or private sales, will, whenever possible, be given.

7. Different editions and various translations of the principal works will be diligently compared with each other, and their variations and relative merits pointed out, especially of such works as the Collections of Voyages and Travels by Grynæus, Ramusio, Leon d'Afrique, Hakluyt, Colyn, De Bry, Hulsius, Purchas, Hartgerta, Thevenot and others; the corresponding parts of which will be compared, not only with each other, but with the editions of the works from which they were translated, abridged, or reprinted.

8. Bibliographical notes will be appended when deemed necessary, containing abstracts of the contents of the works where the titles fail to give a proper idea of them; anecdotes of authors, printers, engravers, etc.; important items of historical and geographical information; notices of peculiarities of copies, as large paper, MS. notes, vellum, cancelled leaves, etc.; the number of copies printed; suppressed editions; together with the comparative rarity and intrinsic value of the works.

9. The notes upon the books printed in America will comprise a full history of the origin and progress of printing in North and South America from the year 1543 to the present time.

10. Under the title of every work will be designated one or more libraries in which it may be found.

11. The titles will be arranged alphabetically, under the names of the authors, or the leading word of the title, with cross references from other names or words when deemed necessary.

12. The work will contain a full Introductory Memoir upon the Materials of early American History, together with an account of the principal collections of them which have been made in Europe and America.

13. Three indexes to the contents of the work will be given, viz. (1) A chronological index, in which the titles briefly given, will be arranged according to the years in which the works were printed; (2) An index of the subjects treated in the books; (3) A general alphabetical index of the persons and subjects mentioned in the notes and introductory memoirs.

14. Facsimile woodcuts, maps, and other early pictorial illustrations will be given when deemed essential.

15. The work will be printed in the form, style, and fashion best suited to such a production, and most approved at the day of its completion; and may we continue in health and vigour till then.

Now, in all these years of research and catalogue-making, I have advanced sufficiently far in the BIBLIOGRAPHIA AMERICANA, to feel that my love of accuracy has been so far taken out of me as to compel me to admit that it is perfectly impossible to prepare the copy with sufficient accuracy to print from at a time and place when and where the rare books described cannot be referred to. It has therefore been found necessary to make this preliminary issue of the more difficult parts of the work by throwing into type the titles of each work in full, correcting the proofs from the books themselves as they pass through my hands, or are found in the library of the British Museum or elsewhere. By this means I shall not only record the materials for the Bibliographia as I meet with them, but, what is of the greatest importance to me and to the work, I shall be enabled to receive the kind co-operation of librarians and bibliographers in the examination and collation of rare books in libraries remote from each other.

The materials thus collected it is proposed to re-arrange and elaborate according to the plan detailed above. Brief collations of each book will be given, with occasional notes, illustrations, etc. ; but desiring to interfere as little as possible with the BIBLIOGRAPHIA AMERICANA, nothing will be printed in this which can as well be printed, for the first time, in the larger work. Although no expense or pains will be spared to secure accuracy in this preliminary issue, yet, as it is but a mere stepping-stone to a larger and better work, I deem it expedient to print but very few copies, and shall think myself fortunate if they fall into the hands of collectors and librarians interested in the subject, who will kindly point out to me such inaccuracies and variations as they may from time to time detect in comparing my titles with their own. Lest this comparatively private and very imperfect edition may hereafter be mistaken for, and confounded with, the BIBLIOGRAPHIA AMERICANA, I have purposely given it a name more forcible, perhaps, than elegant, 'HISTORICAL NUGGETS.' The name is, however, to me a matter of no sort of consequence, provided it answers the purpose for which it is intended, viz. to assist in reducing my observations and collections, and securing accuracy for the larger work.

These two volumes contain about 3000 titles alphabetically arranged according to the names of the authors, or generally the first words of the titles, not articles. This rule however has not been very strictly kept. The books catalogued are not a selection of works of this class, but are just such as I happened to have on hand for sale in 1857, when these volumes were printed. I therefore added the prices, printing not a title unless I had the book for sale. Since the last of the sheets was printed off, many of the lots have been sold, and of many I still possess duplicates. Most of the books were priced ten years ago, and consequently the prices given are not now in all cases to be relied upon. Those books still on hand are for sale, together with several thousand others not yet described.

Considerable progress has been made with a second alphabet of about 4500 titles, all differing from those given in these first two volumes, which when printed will form volumes 3, 4, and 5 of this stepping-stone series to be completed in ten volumes. Volume 6 will probably contain the collations of the great collections of voyages, as De Bry, Hulsius, Romusio, Hakluyt, Purchas, etc. It is proposed to fill volumes 7, 8 and 9 with the titles of such books as may pass through my hands in the meantime, together with the titles which I find in the library of the British Museum and elsewhere, of books which do not occur for sale. These latter ones will of course be given without prices. Volume 10 and last will contain an index of the whole, and such preliminary notes and queries as may be required for promoting investigations not finished.

It may not be out of place here to mention that I have printed, and they will be published simultaneously with these two volumes, a catalogue of all the American books, maps etc. in the library of the British Museum to the beginning of 1857, including the books of British and Spanish America and the West Indies. This catalogue will be kept up and re-issued from time to time, with additions, notes, biographies, etc. according to the plan detailed in the preface of the first Volume. It is intended to keep the Bibliographia Americana and the Catalogue of American Books in the British Museum as distinct as possible, so as not to cover the same ground more than once. When complete, the two works will be only different series of the same, both together forming a history of American literature, and an account of the literature of American history.

Hoping, diligent Reader, that we may all survive the publications of these long-projected works,

I am, Yours patiently,

HENRY STEVENS.

AFRICAN TRADE (THE), the great Pillar and Support of the British Plantation Trade in America: Shewing that our Loss, by being beat out of all the Foreign Markets for Sugar and Indigo by the French, has been owing to the Neglect of our African Trade; which only, can supply our Colonies with Negroes, for the making of Sugars, and all other Plantation Produce: That the Support and Security of the Negroe-Trade depends wholly on the due and effectual Support of the Royal African Company of England, which has hitherto preserved this invaluable Trade to these Kingdoms: That the Difficulties and Discouragements which the said Company labours under, threaten the absolute Loss of the Negroe Trade to this Nation; and consequently the total Ruin of all the British Plantations in America: And also, What the Royal African Company have a natural Right to hope for this Session of Parliament from their Country, in order to enable them to support and maintain the British Interest, Rights and Privileges in Africa against the French, and all other Rivals in the same most valuable Trade. Vnd haben kain regiment./ [Trans.] (This figure represents to us the people and island which have been discovered by the Christian King of Portugal or by his subjects. The people are thus naked, handsome, brown, well shaped in body; their heads, necks, arms, private parts, feet of men and women are a little covered with feathers. The men also have many precious stones in their faces and breasts. No one also has any thing, but all things are in common. And the men have as wives those who please them, be they mothers, sisters, or friends, therein make they no distinction. They also fight with each other. They also eat each other, even those who are slain, and hang the flesh of them in the smoke. They become a hundred and fifty years old. And have no government.) [1500?] Folio. (12l. 12s. 77)

The above text in German, occupies four lines beneath an old block leaf, nine by thirteen inches square, representing the manners and customs of the natives of the Northern and Eastern coast of South America as first found by the Portuguese at the end of the 15th or beginning of the 16th century. It is without date, but was probably printed at Augsburg, or Nuremberg, between the years 1497 and 1504. It is believed to be unique. A facsimile of this earliest known xylographic leaf respecting America is given in Stevens's American Bibliographer, Part I.

The following is the last stanza of this mock-heroic poem, to which subsequent events gave a melancholy interest probably little dreamed of by the writer.

And now I've clos'd my epic strain,
I tremble as I show it,
Left this fame warrior-drover, Wayne,
Should ever catch the poet.

APOLOGY (AN)/ for the/ Builder;/ or a/ Discourse/ shewing the/ Cause and Effects/ of the/ Increase of Building./ London, Printed in the Year,/ MDCLXXXIX./ Title, and 37 pp. half morocco. 4to. (1l. 1s. 132)

Among the several references to America in this quaint little book the following extract is not the least curious: "Now the reason of this was, the People of England were a little before that time under the same mistake, as they are generally now, and cried out against the Builders, that the City would grow too big; and therefore in the 38 of Queen Elizabeth, they made a Law to prohibit Buildings in the City of London; which though it was but a probationary Act, to continue only to the next Sessions of Parliament (which was but a short time) yet its effects were long; For it frightened the Builders, and obstructed the growth of the City; and none built for thirty years after, all King James His Reign, without his Majesties License; But for want of Houses the increase of the People went into other parts of the world; For within this space of time were those great Plantations of New-England, Virginia, Mariland, and Bermudas began; and that this want of Houses was the occasion, is plain; For they could not build in the Country, because of the Law against Cottages. For people may get children and so increase, that had not four Acres of ground to build on." Page 28.

Ensign Barnum entered the King's service in General Lyman's and Col. Wightman's Connecticut Regiments, and was engaged through the Old French War from 1757 to the Peace of 1763. In the Revolution he joined the Tories and was employed "in confidential and dangerous services" by Governor Tryon. He made dangerous excursions into the country and enlisted above 200 men for the King's service. He was afterwards captured, put in irons, charged with treason against the State of Connecticut, but by means of his wounds, and by inoculating for the small pox, he managed to put off the day of this trial, which he apprehended would prove fatal, until he found an opportunity to escape.

This most valuable work is based upon the unfinished work of Eguiaza, one volume only of which, containing the letters A, B, C, was published in Mexico, in 1755, under the title, Bibliotheca Mexicana. This work, however, is greatly enlarged, and contains the whole alphabet. It is alphabetically arranged under the names of the authors, a biography of each author preceding the list of his works both printed and manuscript. The author, Dr. Beristain de Souza, was born in Puebla de los Angeles in Mexico, on the 22nd of May, 1756, and died at the age of sixty-eight, before the first volume had passed through the press.

cluding the engraved and printed titles: Text 922 pp.
followed by 14 leaves of Table. Plate at p. 783.
Large Folio. (3l. 13s. 6d. 428)

A Second and important volume of this work was printed at Lima in 1653, but was never published, owing probably to certain obnoxious passages contained in it. It is a smaller volume than the first, and is of very rare occurrence. This copy wants the title, and some of the marginal notes have been cut off, probably by the Inquisition. It has 6 preliminary leaves, without the title. Book I is folioed to 15, and paged thence to 268. Book II has one preliminary leaf, and breaks off abruptly with the 42nd page. Then comes Book V in 92 pages, followed by 2 leaves containing the Table of the whole volume. In this the Fifth Book is called the third in order. I have never seen another copy.

CAREY (MATHEW). Autograph Letter to William Dunlop, Esq., of New-York, dated at Philadelphia, June 19, 1832. 1 page. 4to. (5s. 451)

In this interesting letter Mr. Carey says of himself: "I have been myself a sort of devotee to literary pursuits. I have laboured hard for the public, and 'worked for nothing and found myself.' I have been in the vineyard for 53 years—and never wrote a line with a view to profit, although some very few of my productions were slightly profitable. I have written as much as would fill 20 or 25 octavo volumes, such as they print in London. On the single subject of Political Economy I have written about 2060 pages, two-thirds of which were given away gratuitously at my own expense."

Many accounts are given respecting the suppression of this book.

At all events it is certain that not many copies were preserved, probably not a dozen. Mr. Rich states, on the authority of notes in his copy, which came from the library of Gilbert Buchanan, that it was printed by Baker and Galabin, and that the book was corrected for the press by Gilbert Buchanan. This copy belonged to Mr. Tutet, who wrote on the fly leaf, soon after the printing of the work: "This Book was printed in the year 1782, for George Chalmers, Esq. the Author, who wrote an history of the Rise and Progress of the American Colonies, published in Quarto. Note, the Reader will think it extraordinary there is no title page, but after the book was printed the Author suppressed it:—whether owing to the separation of the Colonies, which happened just at the season for publication, viz. December, 1782, or the prior cause in April, antecedent the dismissal of a tory Administration, is only known to the Author, who is a Scotchman. E. TUTET, 1783."

"This was to have made two volumes, the first only was finished, but never published. A few copies only were preserved." The book is divided into Reigns, extending from James I. to George I. This volume was reprinted in Boston in 1845, together with a second volume, for the first time printed from the original Manuscript in the autograph of Mr. Chalmers.

CHALMERS (GEORGE). Opinions on interesting subjects of Public Law and Commercial Policy; arising from American Independence. § 1. The question answered—Whether the Citizens of the United States are considered by the Law of England as Aliens; what Privileges are they entitled to within the Kingdom; what Rights can they claim in the remaining Colonies of Britain. § 2. The Regulations for opening the American Trade considered; Faults found; and Amendments proposed. How the late Proclamations affect the United States discussed: Objections pointed out; and Alterations suggested. § 3. How far the British West Indies were injured by the late Proclamation fully investigated; the Amount of their Wants discovered; Modes of Supply shewn; And the Policy of admitting the American Vessels into their Ports amply argued. § 4. An Enquiry how far a Commercial Treaty with the American States is necessary, or would be advantageous: What the Laws of England have already provided on this Subject; and the fundamental Laws of the United States compared with them. By George Chalmers, author of Political Annals of the Revolted Colonies, and of an Estimate of the Comparative Strength of Britain. A New Edition, Corrected. *London: J. Debrett, 1785. CHECKLEY (JOHN). The Religion of Jesus Christ the only True Religion, or, A Short and Easie Method with the Deists, Wherein the Certainty of the Christian Religion Is demonstrated by Infallible Proof from Four Rules, which are Incompatible to any Imposture that ever yet has been, or that can possibly be. In a Letter to a Friend. The Seventh Edition. Boston: Printed by T. Fleet, and are to be Sold by John Checkley, at the Sign of the Crown and Blue Gate over against the West End of the Town-House. 1719. Title, reverse blank; 'The Preface,' [By Checkley] xii pp; Text 51 pp; 'The Epistle of St. Ignatius to the Trallians.' 7 pp. 8vo. (3l. 3s. 534)

This book is a reprint of Charles Leslie's 'Short and Easie Method with the Deists,' first published in London in 1699, but Mr. Checkley prefixed a preface of his own of 12 pages, not in the 8th Ed. (v. No 535). This edition does not contain Checkley's Discourse concerning Episcopacy. Thomas, vol. ii. p. 428, says, "Whether he [Checkley] was a regular bookseller or not, I am not prepared to say; I have seen no book printed for him in America."

[CHECKLEY (JOHN)]. A Short and Easy Method with the Deists. Wherein the Certainty of the Christian Religion Is demonstrated, by infallible Proof from Four Rules, which are Incompatible to any Imposture that ever yet has been, or that can possibly be. In a Letter to a Friend. The Eighth Edition. London: Printed by J. Applebee, and Sold by John Checkley, at the Sign of the Crown and Blue-Gate, over against the West-end of the Town-House in Boston. 1723. 132 pp. 8vo. (3l. 3s. 535)

Considerable interest attaches to this very rare book, in consequence of the alarm that it raised in New England, and the litigation that ensued. It contains Leslie's 'Short and Easy Method with the Deists,' but with the preface described in the previous article omitted. But instead of this there is appended (pp. 41 to 127) A Discourse concerning Episcopacy [By John Checkley], wherein he endeavours to prove that Dissenters, not being Episcopally ordained, are no ministers, etc. and comments rather harshly upon the Church Courses of New England. This gave great offence, and Checkley was prosecuted in 1724 at the Inferior Court for publishing "a false and scandalous libel." He was convicted, but appealed to the Superior Court, where, after a long speech in his own defence, endeavouring to show that this Book is not a Libel, the jury found the following verdict:

"THE JURY'S VERDICT."

John Checkley }
ad fec't }
Dom. Reg. }

The Jury find specially: viz. If the Book intituled, A Short and Easy Method with the Deists, containing in it a Discourse concerning Episcopacy (published, and many of them sold by the said Checkley) be a false and scandalous Libel; Then we find the said Checkley guilty of all and every Part of the Indictment (excepting that supposed to raduce and draw into dispute the undoubted Right and Title of our Sovereign Lord King George, to the Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, and the Territories thereto belonging)—But if the said Book, containing a Discourse concerning Episcopacy as aforesaid, be not a false and scandalous Libel; Then we find him not guilty.

Att' Samuel Tyley Clerc."

The Defendant then put in his 'Plea in Arrest of Judgment,' which is given in extenso in his Speech (see No 536), concluding, "But be that as it will, the Dissenters are affirm'd to be no Ministers, to be Schismatics, and excommunicate by the Canons of the Church of England, which are part of the Law of the Land; and therefore, to say the same things of them, I humbly hope shall not be deemed a Libel."

THE SENTENCE OF THE COURT.

Suffolk, ff.

At a Court of Assise, &c.
Nov. 27, 1724.

Checkley } The Court having maturely advised on this special ad fec't } Verdict, are of Opinion that the said John Checkley Dom. Reg. } is guilty of publishing and selling of a false and scandalous Libel. It's therefore considered by the Court, That the said John Checkley shall pay a Fine of Fifty Pounds to the King, and enter into Recognizance in the Sum of One Hundred Pounds, with two Sureties in the Sum of Fifty Pounds each, for his good Behaviour for Six Months, and also pay Costs of Prosecution, standing committed until this Sentence be performed.

Att' Samuel Tiley, Clerc."

CHECKLEY (JOHN). The Speech of Mr. John Checkley upon his Tryal, At Boston in New-England, for publishing The Short and Easy Method with the Deists: To which was added, A Discourse concerning Episcopacy; In Defence of Christianity, and the Church of England, against the Deists and the Dissenters. To which is added: The Jury's Verdict; His Plea in Arrest of Judgment; and the Sentence of Court. London: Printed for J. Wilford, behind the Chapter-House in St. Paul's Church-Yard. 1730. Title, and text pp. 40. 8vo. (3l. 3s. 536)

CHECKLEY (JOHN). A Discourse Shewing Who is a true Pastor of the Church of Christ. 16 pp. Errata 1 p. (10s. 6d. 537)

This tract is without separate title-page or imprint, but was probably printed in London soon after Mr. Checkley's trial. In a note on page 11, he says, "If Those who have a Mind to see the Propositions in this small Tract prov'd beyond the Possibility of a Reply, are desir'd to read a Discourse concerning Episcopacy, which they may have at the Crown and Gate opposite to the West End of the Town-House in Boston. Where likewise may be had Barclay's Persuasive, printed in London, by Jonah Bowyer, with other Books of a like Nature."

[CHECKLEY (JOHN).] A Specimen of a True Dissenting Catechism, upon Right True-Blue Dissenting Principles, with * learned Notes, by Way of Explanation. Question. Why don't the Dissenters in their Publick Worship make use of the Creeds? Answer. Why?—Because they are not fet down Word for Word in the Bible. Question. Well,—But why don't the Dissenters in their Publick Worship make use of the Lord's-Prayer? Answer. Oh!—Because that is fet down Word for Word in the Bible. 1 page. 8vo. (10s. 6d. 538)

COMMON SENSE; Addressed to the Inhabitants of America; etc. Philadelphia Printed. And Sold by W. & T. Bradford. [1776] Half-title, title, and 50 pp. Half mor. 8vo. (6s. 631)

The Introduction of this new Edition is dated, "Philadelphia, February 14, 1776." This copy belonged to Ritson, and on the reverse of the half-title are the following lines, in his own handwriting, "On the King's illness, 1789:—

See the Vengeance of heaven! America cries;
George loses his senses; North loses his eyes:
When they strove to enslave us, all Europe will find That the Tyrant was mad, and his Minister blind."

Inserted is a curious small oval portrait of Tom Paine, "Engraved by James Godby, from an original Drawing done from the Life in America, 1803." Above the portrait are these words, "Quin said of Z . . . that if he was not a Rascal, Nature did not write a legible hand.—Quin was right; Z . . . was a Rascal."

COMMON SENSE, addressed to the Inhabitants of America, On the following interesting Subjects. I. Of the Origin and Design of Government in general, with concise Remarks on the English Constitution. II. Of Monarchy and Hereditary Succession. III. Thoughts on the present State of American Affairs. IV. Of the present Ability of America with some miscellaneous Reflections. Philadelphia Printed: New-York, Reprinted and Sold, by John Anderson, the Corner of Beekman's-Slip. [1776] Title and Introduction 2 leaves; text 56 pp. Half mor. 8vo. (4s. 6d. 632)

Dampier's Expedition into the South-Seas in the Ship St.

George. With his Various Adventures and Engagements, &c. together with a Voyage from the West Coast of Mexico to East-India. By W. Funnell, Mate of Capt. Dampier. IV. Capt. Cowley's Voyage round the Globe. V. Capt. Sharp's Journey over the Isthmus of Darien, and Expedition into the South Seas. VI. Capt. Wood's Voyage through the Streights of Magellan. VII. Mr. Roberts's Adventures and Sufferings amongst the Corsairs of the Levant: His Description of the Archipelago Islands, &c. Illustrated with Maps and Draughts: Also several Birds, Fishes, and Plants, not found in this part of the World: Curiously Engraven on Copper-Plates. London: Printed for James and John Knapton, at the Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard. MDCCLXIX. 4 Volumes. 8vo. (2s. 12s. 6d. 815)

This is generally considered the best Edition of Dampier's Voyages, though it contains much that Dampier not only had no hand in writing, but against which he protested. (See No. 814.) The truth appears to be that he was at the mercy of his publisher, Knapton, who used Dampier's saleable volumes as mules for carrying off his unsaleable stock. Volumes I and II of this edition are reprints of the earlier editions, page for page, and with the same plates and maps, except that in the first volume, the publisher has suppressed Dampier's Dedication to Charles Mountague, President of the Royal Society, to make room for a second title, "A New Voyage round the World," &c. "The Seventh Edition Corrected," which here occupies A 2. Vol. III is a reprint of Dampier's third volume, described above (No. 811-12), but in a broader page, and paged continuously. It has eight preliminary leaves, and the text is paged 1 to 260, including the Index. The plates are the same as in the previous editions. Beyond this Dampier had nothing to do with the work. The remaining half of this third volume consists of a reprint of Wafer's Voyage, which is here called The Third Edition. It contains title and pages 263 to 463, followed by 9 pages of Index. The map and the three plates are the same as in the first and second Editions, published also by Knapton in 1699 and 1704. Volume IV contains Funnell's Voyage, exactly as described below, over No. 1179, with a new title, thus working in bodily the remainder of the edition of 1707, against which Dampier protested. To this are added reprints of Cowley's, Sharp's, Wood's, and Roberts' Voyages, filling 175 pp. and 6 pp. of Index, with 5 maps. In some copies, however, Funnell's Voyage is reprinted with the same maps and plates, but in a closer type, it being in 8 prel. leaves, 208 pages of text, with 8 pages of Index.

With these facts in view, it seems to the writer that it is better to have Dampier undefiled, and therefore the best editions of Dampier are his three volumes as originally published. Then let the other works by Funnell, Wafer, Sharp, &c. stand on their own merits, in their own editions, under their own names.

DAMPIER (WILLIAM). The Voyages and Adventures of Capt. William Dampier. Wherein are Described the Inhabitants, Manners, Customs, Trade, Harbours, Soil, Animals, Vegetables, &c. of the principal Countries, Islands, &c. of Asia,

Africa, and America. Vol. I. [II.] London: Printed in the Year M,DCCC,LXXVI. Two Volumes. Vol. I. Title; 'Preface' 2 pp; Text pp. 5-454. II. Title; Text pp. 3-396. 8vo. (16s. 816)

This edition contains only the three Volumes written by Dampier himself, and is without Maps or Plates. In the Preface the Editor says, "The first edition of Dampier's Voyages was published by himself, but not in the same order they were performed, which has a little perplexed the narrative; the language is now partly become obsolete, which renders the perusal more difficult to common readers; and the Edition is also now extremely scarce. To remedy these inconveniences, the chronological order wherein the series of events happened is observed in this Edition; all old phrases and expressions are modernized; and to render this publication still more acceptable to naturalists and geographers; where our author had only given the common country names of natural subjects, the present systematical names are added without altering his descriptions; which have always been quoted as of the greatest authority by writers on Natural History, and the names of places are corrected according to the modern spelling of the latest geographers."

This is the most celebrated of all the Almanacs of the celebrated Poor Richard, and, as far as my experience goes, one of the rarest to be met with in a perfect state like the present copy. It is full of precious gems, but weighs, Troy weight, scarcely two sovereigns. I therefore mark it cheap enough at five times its weight in gold. In all the Almanacs previous to this from 1733, Franklin had dropped in to fill up the chinks between the remarkable days in the Calendar many proverbial sentences, designed to inculcate industry, frugality, and other virtues. In his Autobiography, written many years after, Franklin says, "These Proverbs, which contained the wisdom of many ages and nations, I assembled and formed into a connected discourse, prefixed to the Almanac of 1758, as the harangue of a wise old man to the people attending an auction. The bringing all these scattered counsels thus into a focus, enabled them to make greater impression. The piece being universally approved, was copied in all the newspapers of the American Continent; reprinted in Britain on a large sheet of paper, to be stuck up in houses. Two translations were made of it in France, and great numbers bought by the clergy and gentry to distribute gratis among their poor parishioners and tenants. In Pennsylvania, as it discouraged useless expense in foreign superfluities, some thought it had its share of influence in producing that growing plenty of money, which was observable for several years after its publication." Since Franklin wrote his autobiography, this summary has been many times reprinted, both in England and France, and in many languages, even in modern Greek by Didot; but such a chain of gems can never wear out or be lost, and therefore, at the risk of burying it, I insert it here in full, reprinted verbatim:—

COURTEOUS READER,

I HAVE heard that nothing gives an Author so great Pleasure, as to find his Works respectfully quoted by other learned Authors. This Pleasure I have seldom enjoyed; for tho' I have been, if I may say it without Vanity, an eminent Author of Almanacs annually now a full Quarter of a Century, my Brother Authors in the same Way, for what Reason I know not, have ever been very sparing in their Applauses; and no other Author has taken the least Notice of me, so that did not my Writings produce me some solid Praising, the great Deficiency of Praise would have quite discouraged me.

I concluded at length, that the People were the best Judges of my Merit; for they buy my Works; and besides, in my Rambles, where I am not personally known, I have frequently heard one or other of my Adages repeated, with, as Poor Richard says, at the End on't; this gave me some Satisfaction, as it showed not only that my Instructions were regarded, but discovered likewise some Respect for my Authority; and I own, that to encourage the practice of remembering and repeating those wise Sentences, I have sometimes quoted myself with great Gravity.

Judge then how much I must have been gratified by an Incident I am going to relate to you. I lost my Horse lately where a great Number of People were collected at a Vendue of Merchant Goods. The Hour of Sale not being come, they were conversing on the Badness of the Times, and one of the Company call'd to a plain clean old Man, with white Locks, Pray Father Abraham, what think you of the Times! Won't these heavy Taxes quite ruin the Country! How shall we be ever able to pay them? What would you advise us to?—Father Abraham stood up, and reply'd, If you'd have my Advice, I'll give it you in short, for a Word to the Wise is enough, and many Words won't fill a Bushel, as Poor Richard says. They join'd in desiring him to speak his Mind, and gathering round him, he proceeded as follows;

"Friends, says he, and Neighbours, the Taxes are indeed very heavy, and if those laid on by the Government were the only Ones we had to pay, we might more easily discharge them; but we have many others, and much more grievous to some of us. We are taxed twice as much by our Idleness, three times as much by our Pride, and four times as much by our Folly, and from these Taxes the Commissioners cannot ease or deliver us by allowing an Abatement. However let us hearken to good Advice, and something may be done for us; God helps them that help themselves, as Poor Richard says, in his Almanack of 1733.

It would be thought a hard Government that should tax its People one tenth Part of their Time, to be employed in its Service. But Idleness taxes many of us much more, if we reckon all that is spent in absolute Sloth, or doing of nothing, with that which is spent in idle Employments or Amusements, that amount to nothing. Sloth, by bringing on Diseases, absolutely shortens Life. Sloth, like Rust, consumes faster than Labour wears, while the used Key is always bright, as Poor Richard says. But dost thou love Life, then do not squander Time, for that's the Stuff Life is made of, as Poor Richard says.—How much more than is necessary do we spend in Sleep! forgetting that The sleeping Fox catches no Poultry, and that there will be sleeping enough in the Grave, as Poor Richard says. If Time be of all Things the most precious, wasting of Time must be, as Poor Richard says, the greatest Prodigality, since, as he elsewhere tells us, Lost Time is never found again; and what we call Time-enough, always proves little enough: Let us then up and be doing, and doing to the Purpose; so by Diligence shall we do more with less Perplexity. Sloth makes all Things difficult, but Industry all things easy, as Poor Richard says; and He that riseth late, must trot all Day, and shall scarce overtake his Business at Night. While Laziness travels so slowly, that Poverty soon overtakes him, as we read in Poor Richard, who adds, Drive thy Business, let not that drive thee; and Early to Bed, and early to rise, makes a Man healthy, wealthy and wise.

So what signifies wishing and hoying for better Times. We may make these Times better if we better ourselves. Industry need not wish, as Poor Richard says, and He that lives upon Hope will die fasting. There are no Gains, without Pains; then Help Hands, for I have no Lands, or if I have, they are unfairly taxed. And as Poor Richard likewise observes, He that hath a Trade hath an Estate, and He that hath a Calling hath an Office of Profit and Honour; but then the Trade must be worked at, and the Calling well followed, or neither the Estate, nor the Office, will enable us to pay our Taxes.—If we are indolent, we shall never starve; for, as Poor Richard says, At the working Man's House Hunger looks in, but dares not enter. Nor will the Bailiff or the Constable enter, for Industry pays Debts, while Despair encreaseth them, says Poor Richard.—What though you have found no Treasure, nor has any rich Relation left you a Legacy, Diligence is the mother of Good-luck, as Poor Richard says, and God gives all Things to Industry. Then plough deep, while Sluggards sleep, and you shall have Corn to sell and to keep, says Poor Dick. Work while it is called To-day, for you know not how much you may be hindered To-morrow, which makes Poor Richard say, One To-day is worth two To-morrows; and farther, Have you somewhat to do To-morrow, do it to To-day. If you were a Servant, would you not be ashamed that a good Master should catch you idle! Are you then your own Master, be ashamed to catch yourself idle, as Poor Dick says. When there is so much to be done for yourself, your family, your Country, and your gracious King, be up by Peep of Day; Let not the Sun look down and say, Inglorious here he lies. Handle your Tools without Mittens; remember that the Cat in Gloves catches no Mice, as Poor Richard says. 'Tis true there is much to be done, and perhaps you are weak handed, but stick to it steadily, and you will see great Effects, for constant Dropping wears away Stones, and by Diligence and Patience, the Mouse ate in two the Cable; and little Strokes fell great Oaks, as Poor Richard says in his Almanack, the Year I cannot just now remember.

Metinks I hear some of you say, Must a man afford himself no Leisure?—I will tell thee, My Friend, what Poor Richard says, Employ thy Time well if thou meanest to gain Leisure; and, since thou art not sure of a Minute, throw not away an Hour. Leisure, is Time for doing something useful; this Leisure the diligent Man will obtain, but the lazy Man never; so that, as Poor Richard says, a Life of Leisure and a Life of Laziness are two Things. Do you imagine that Sloth will afford you more Comfort than Labour! No, for as Poor Richard says, Trouble springs from Idleness, and grievous Toil from needless Ease. Many without Labour, would live by their Wits only, but they break for want of stock. Whereas Industry gives Comfort, and Plenty and Respect: Fly Pleasures, and they'll follow you. The diligent Spinner has a large Shift; and now I have a Sheep and a Cow, every Body bids me Good morrow; all which is well said by Poor Richard.

But with our Industry, we must likewise be steady, settled and careful, and oversee our own Affairs with our own Eyes, and not trust too much to others; for, as Poor Richard says,

I never saw an oft removed Tree,

Nor yet an oft removed Family,

That thrive so well as those that settled be.

And again, Three Removes is as bad as a Fire; and again, Keep thy Shop, and thy Shop will keep thee; and again, If you would have your Business done, go; if not, send. And again,

He that by the Plough would thrive,

Himself must either hold or drive.

And again, The Eye of a Master will do more Work than both his Hands; and again, Want of Care does us more Damage than Want of Knowledge; and again, not to oversee Workmen, is to leave them your Purse open. Trusting too much to others Care is the Ruin of many; for, as the Almanack says, In the Affairs of this World, Men are saved, not by Faith, but by the Want of it; but a Man's own Care is profitable; for, saith Poor Dick, Learning is to the Studious, and Riches to the Careful, as well as Power to the Bold, and Heaven to the Virtuous. And farther, If you would have a faithful Servant, and one that you like, serve yourself. And again, be adviſed to Circumspection and Care, even in the smallest Matters, because sometimes a little Neglect may breed great Mischief; adding For want of a Nail the Shoe was lost; for want of a Shoe the Horse was lost; and for want of a Horse the Rider was lost, being overtaken and slain by the Enemy, all for want of Care about a Horse-shoe Nail.

So much for Industry, my Friends, and Attention to one's own Business; but to these we must add Frugality, if we would make our Industry more certainly successful. A Man may, if he knows not how to save as he gets, keep his Nose all his Life to the Grindstone, and die not worth a Groat at last. A fat Kitchen makes a lean Will, as Poor Richard says; and,

Many Estates are spent in the Getting.

Since Women for Tea forsook Spinning and Knitting,

And Men for Punch forsook Hewing and Splitting.

If you would be wealthy, says he, in another Almanack, think of Saving as well as of Getting: The Indies have not made Spain rich, because her Outgoes are greater than her Incomes. Away then with your expensive Follies, and you will not have so much Cause to complain of hard Times, heavy Taxes, and chargeable Families; for, as Poor Dick says,

*Women and Wine, Game and Decit,
Make the Wealth small, and the Wants great.*

And farther, What maintains one Vice, would bring up two Children. You may think perhaps, That a little Tea, or a little Punch now and then, Diet a little more costly, Clothes a little finer, and a little Entertainment now and then, can be no great Matter; but remember what Poor Richard says, Many a Little makes a Mickle; and farther, Beware of little Expenses; a small Leak will sink a great Ship; and again, Who Dainties love, shall Beggars prove; and moreover, Fools make Feasts, and wise Men eat them.

Here you are all got together at this Vendue of Fineries and Knicknacks. You call them Goods, but if you do not take Care, they will prove Evils to some of you. You expect they will be sold cheap, and perhaps they may for less than they cost; but if you have no Occasion for them, they must be dear to you. Remember what Poor Richard says, Buy what thou hast no Need of, and ere long thou shalt sell thy Necessaries. And again, At a great Pennyworth pause a while: He means, that perhaps the Cheapness is apparent only, and not real; or the Bargain, by frustrating thee in thy Business, may do thee more Harm than Good. For in another Place he says, Many have been ruined by buying good Pennyworths. Again, Poor Richard says, 'Tis foolish to lay out Money in a Purchase of Repentance; and yet this Folly is practis'd every Day at Vendues, for want of minding the Almanack. Wise men, as Poor Dick says, learn by others Harms, Fools scarcely by their own; but, Felix quem faciunt aliena Pericula cautum. Many a one, for the Sake of Finery on the Back, have gone with a hungry Belly, and half starved their Families; Silks and Satins, Scarlet and Velvets, as Poor Richard says, put out the Kitchen Fire. These are not the Necessaries of Life; they can scarcely be called the Conveniences, and yet only because they look pretty, how many want to have them. The artificial Wants of Mankind thus become more numerous than the natural; and, as Poor Dick says, For one poor Person, there are an hundred indigent. By these, and other Extravagancies, the Gentle are reduced to Poverty, and forced to borrow of those whom they formerly despised, but who through Industry and Frugality have maintained their Standing; in which Case it appears plainly, that a Ploughman on his Legs is higher than a Gentleman on his Knees, as Poor Richard says. Perhaps they have had a small Estate left them, which they knew not the Getting of; they think 'tis Day, and will never be Night; that a little to be sent out of so much, is not worth minding; (a Child and a Fool, as Poor Richard says, imagine Twenty Shillings and Twenty Years can never be spent) but, always taking out of the Meat-bowl, and never putting in, soon comes to the Bottom; then, as Poor Dick says, When the Well's dry, they know the Worth of Water. But this they might have known before, if they had taken his Advice: If you would know the Value of Money, go and try to borrow some; for, he that goes a borrowing goes a sorrowing; and indeed so does he that lends to such People, when he goes to get it in again.—Poor Dick farther advises, and says,

Fond Pride of Dreß, is sure a very Curse;

E'er Fancy you consult, consult your Purse.

And again, Pride is as loud a Beggar as Want, and a great deal more angry. When you have bought one fine Thing you must buy ten more, that your Appearance may be all of a Piece: but Poor Dick says, 'Tis easier to suppress the first Desire, than to satisfy all that follow it. And 'tis as truly Folly for the Poor to ape the Rich, as for the Frog to swell, in order to equal the Ox.

Great Estates may venture more.

But little Boats should keep near Shore.

'Tis however a Folly soon punished; for Pride that dines on Vanity suvs on Contempt, as Poor Richard says. And in another Place, Pride breakfasted with Plenty, dined with Poverty, and supped with Infamy. And after all, of what Use is this Pride of Appearance, for which so much is risked, so much is suffered! It cannot promote Health, or ease Pain; it makes no Increase of Merit in the Person, it creates Envy, it hastens Misfortune.

What is a Butterfly? At best

He's but a Caterpillar dress'd.

The gaudy Fop's his picture just, as Poor Richard says.

But what Madneſs muſt it be to run in Debt for theſe Superfluities! We are offer'd, by the Terms of this Vendue, Six Months Credit; and that perhaps has induc'd ſome of us to attend it, becauſe we cannot ſpare the ready Money, and hope now to be free without it. But, ah, think what you do when you run in Debt; You give to another Power over your Liberty. If you cannot pay at the Time, you will be aſham'd to ſee your Creditor; you will be in Fear when you ſpeak to him; you will make poor pitiful ſneaking Excus'es, and by Degrees come to loſe your Veracity, and ſink into baſe downright lying; for, as Poor Richard ſays, The ſecond Vice is Lying, the firſt is running in Debt. And again, to the ſame Purpoſe, Lying rides upon Debt's Back. Whereas a free-born Engliſhman ought not to be aſham'd or afraid to ſee or ſpeak to any Man living. But Poverty often deprives a Man of all Spirit and Virtue; 'Tis hard for an empty Bag to ſtand upright, as Poor Richard truly ſays. What would you think of that Prince, or that Government, who ſhould iſſue an Edict forbidding you to dreſs like a Gentleman or a Gentlewoman, on Pain of Imprifonment or Servitude! Would you not ſay, that you are free, have a Right to dreſs as you pleaſe, and that ſuch an Edict would be a Breach of your Privileges, and ſuch a Government tyrannical! And yet you are about to put yourſelf under that Tyranny when you run in Debt for ſuch Dreſſes! Your Creditor has Authority at his Pleaſure to deprive you of your Liberty, by conſining you in Goal for Life, or to ſell you for a Servant, if you ſhould not be able to pay him! When you have got your Bargain, you may, perhaps, think little of Payment; but Creditors, Poor Richard tells us, have better Memories than Debtors; and in another Place ſays, Creditors are a ſuperſtitious Sect, great Obſervers of ſet Days and Times. The Day comes round before you are aware, and the Demand is made before you are prepared to ſatisfy it. Or if you bear your Debt in Mind, the Term which at firſt ſeem'd ſo long, will, as it leſſens, appear extremely ſhort. Time will ſeem to have add'd Wings to his Heels as well as Shoulders. Thoſe have a ſhort Lent, ſaith Poor Richard, who owe Money to be paid at Eaſter. Then ſince, as he ſays, The Borrower is a Slave to the Lender, and the Debtor to the Creditor, diſſtain the Chain, preſerve your Freedom; and maintain your Independency: Be industrious and free; be frugal and free. At preſent, perhaps, you may think yourſelf in thriving Circumſtances, and that you can bear a little Extravagance without Injury; but,

For Age and Want, ſave while you may;

No Morning Sun laſts a whole Day, as Poor Richard ſays.—Gain may be temporary and uncertain, but ever while you live, Expence is conſtant and certain; and 'tis eaſier to build two Chimnies than to keep one in Fuel, as Poor Richard ſays. So rather go to Bed ſupperleſs than riſe in Debt.

Get what you can, and what you get hold;

'Tis the Stone that will turn all your Lead into Gold, as Poor Richard ſays. And when you have got the Philoſopher's Stone, ſure you will no longer complain of bad Times, or the Difficulty of paying Taxes.

This Doctrin, my Friends, is Reason and Wiſdom; but after all, do not depend too much upon your own Industry, and Frugality, and Prudence, though excellent Things, for they may all be blaſt without the Bleſſing of Heaven; and therefore aſk that Bleſſing humbly, and be not uncharitable to thoſe that at preſent ſeem to want it, but comfort and help them. Remember Job ſuffer'd, and was afterwards proſperous.

And now to conclude, Experience keeps a dear School, but Fools will learn in no other, and ſcorer in that; for it is true, we may give Advice, but we cannot give Conduct, as Poor Richard ſays:

However, remember this, They that won't be counselled, can't be helped, as Poor Richard says: and farther, That if you will not hear Reason, she'll surely rap your Knuckles. Thus the old Gentleman ended his Harangue. The People heard it, and approved the Doctrine, and immediately practised the contrary, just as if it had been a common Sermon; for the Vendue opened, and they began to buy extravagantly, notwithstanding all his Cautions, and their own Fear of Taxes.—I found the good Man had thoroughly redded my Almanacks, and digested all I had dropt on those Topicks during the Course of Five-and-twenty Years. The frequent Mention he made of me must have tired any one else, but my Vanity was wonderfully delighted with it, though I was conscious that not a tenth Part of the Wisdom was my own which he ascribed to me, but rather the Gleanings I had made of the Sense of all Ages and Nations. However, I refused to be the better for the Echo of it; and though I had at first determined to buy Stuff for a new Coat, I went away resolved to wear my old One a little longer. Reader, if thou wilt do the same, thy Profit will be as great as mine.

I am, as ever,

Thine to serve thee,

July 7, 1757.

Hakluyt, in his Preface, says, "The worke, though small in bulke, containeth so much rare and profitable matter, as I know not where to seeke the like, within so narrow and streite a compasse." And again, "Now touching the translation, it may please you fir, to be aduertised that it was first done into our language by some honest and well affected merchant of our nation, whose name by no meanes I could attaine vnto, and that as it seemeth many yeeres ago. For it hath lien by me aboue these twelue yeeres. In all which space though I haue made much inquirie, and sent to Lisbon, where it seemeth it was printed, yet to this day I could neuer obtaine the originall copie; whereby I might reforme the manifold errors of the translator." &c. The only copy of the original edition in Portuguese that I have ever seen, or possessed, forms part of the wonderful collection of John Carter Brown, Esq. of Providence, Rhode Island.

The following is the whole of this important letter:—

My dear Madam.

J. P. Mar. 9, 76.

I have an opportunity of conveying the following important intelligence which I therefore gladly embrace. Yesterday afternoon came out a flag of truce with a letter to Gen. Washington signed by the four select men remaining in Boston, acquainting that the inhabitants observing that Gen. How was preparing to embark his troops, were apprehensive that he would burn the town when he had evacuated it, & therefore several of the most respectable waited upon Col. Robinson, & he upon Gen. How who directed him to inform the gentlemen, that he should not destroy the town unless he was interrupted in his embarkation by those that were without. The letter requested that the inhabitants might have their fears dissipated by assurances that no such interruption would be given. The General's answer I know not. But there is reason to apprehend, that while How is preparing to push off immediately, he intends if he can catch the opportunity to attack us in one quarter or other before he goes. Lord Percy embarked with three thousand troops on the Tuesday with a design of attacking our posts upon Dorchester hills on the Wednesday morning at five; but God would not suffer, & blew with his winds in a manner scarce ever remembered here, & thereby disconcerted their whole plan. Yours in great haste

William Gordon.

KEATING (MAURICE). The Genuine Narrative Of the Life and Transactions of Major Maurice Keating, The noted Pirate and Murderer, Who was executed on Monday the 27th of December, 1784, at Cuckold's Point, near Port-Royal, in the Island of Jamaica. Which contains a particular account of his being shipwrecked and reduced to the greatest necessities, and afterwards being concerned with three others in seizing the schooner Friendship, Captain William Lewis, bound from Virginia to St. Thomas's, in which they had agreed to take their passage, with the first resolution to seize the vessel the first opportunity, and to murder all the persons belonging to her, without distinction; in which diabolical scheme they too well succeeded.—On the Captain, Mate, and particularly on a Mr. Wilkinson, who was also a passenger, they exercised the most unheard of cruelty, although the unhappy gentleman begged earnestly for his life in the most pathetic manner.—The particulars of the extraordinary manner of his being discovered, and his confession of the whole transaction before the magistrates at Kingston.—Likewise an account of his behaviour at the place of execution, and a particular narration of his life, which he delivered to a gentleman the night before he suffered. N.B. This Narrative is published as a caution to captains of ships to be particularly careful what passengers they take on board; and is one of the most bloody scenes of villainy ever heard of since the time of the noted pirate Blackbeard. To which is added, A True and Faithful Account of the Loss of the Brigantine Tyrrell, And the uncommon Hardships suffered by the Crew. London: Printed by J. Miller, No. 74, Rosemary-lane.
